

AMAZON JUNGLE TOUR (CUYABENO)

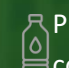

Cuyabeno River Lodge is located in a highly protected area of the Cuyabeno Nature Reserve. Our 400 hectares of private primary forest, officially recognized as part of the national reserve. It became part of the preserve in 1979 to support our ongoing preservation efforts. The activities carried out in the area are clearly sustainable, since they bet on environmental regeneration for the enjoyment and enjoyment of others.

This is why our lodge is certified with the quality seal Q (Quality Ecuador), it is a paradise with a great variety of species of flora and fauna. Here you can see pink dolphins, alligators, monkeys, birds and reptiles. In addition to sharing with the local Siona community, you can learn about their rituals and traditional medicine.

Day 1:

After traveling by bus directly to the Cuyabeno Bridge, we will travel by motorized canoe to our lodge for breakfast and rest, after lunch we will take a short acclimatization walk along the Los Ceibos trail. Upon return we will prepare our tents and other logistics for our trip the next day. Dinner and stay at Cuyabeno River Lodge.

Day 2

After breakfast, we will get into the canoes that we will be using for the next four days to move through the Reserve. We will begin to rowing the Cuyabeno river until we reach Paso del Tigre, where we will have a short walk of approximately two hours where we may be lucky enough to see Pecares. When we return to the canoe, we will have the opportunity to fish for piranhas, and we will go deeper into the jungle, we will arrive at the Canangueno lagoon, where, more at night, we will have a night walk to observe caimans; We will spend the night in the lagoon. (As a point of reference: We can camp at Paso del Tigre.

Day 3

(Optional: Requests for morning birding walks are welcome.) After breakfast, we will get on our canoe, enjoying beautiful flora and fauna. We will continue on our journey until we reach the Laguna Grande; which is the natural habitat of various species of animals, such as pink and gray dolphins, river turtles, and the elusive anaconda. We will find a suitable place to have lunch and rest for a while. And we will continue our trip through Cuyabeno, until we reach the Siona community in Puerto Bolívar, where we will be able to see their customs and experience their way of making food, assisting in the manufacture of cassava or casabe bread. Then we will go down the river where we will camp for the night.

Day 4

We will go along the river until we reach ; where we will have a short walk through this almost untouched part of Cuyabeno, and we will go bird watching in the river. We will observe the pink dolphins along the river and they will be able to swim in it. We will camp in Montufar to spend the night.

Day 5

Breakfast, then we will go through the Cuyabeno River until we reach Aguas Negras; a beautiful black water river that has a large number of exotic and unique birds that could not be seen anywhere in the world. We will enjoy some fantastic walks through the jungle and we will be able to learn about this unique ecosystem with the help of our guide. We will return to Cuyabeno River lodge to spend the night in the cabins with all the services it offers.

Day 6

On the last day, we will have a breakfast. Then we will have the piranha fishing activity in Paiche Poza (Arapaima Pool). Hopefully we will be able to see something that we did not get on our trip to the interior of the Reserve. Upon arrival at the Lodge, we will have lunch, rest for a moment and at 11:00 pm we will go to the Cuyabeno Bridge to take the bus back to Latacunga.
